

CLINICAL PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS & GUIDELINES

Please review your degree requirements and this course catalogue before filling out the Clinical Course Application.

Your registration application is due Monday, March 25, 2024. All applications will be reviewed after the deadline, without regard to the order in which they were received. Accordingly, please take your time in carefully reviewing these materials and preparing your application. You are only registering for the SUMMER 2024 semester at this time.

All courses in this catalogue are 1 unit, unless otherwise mentioned. All courses meet on zoom and are open to students at all campuses, unless otherwise mentioned.

Please note that “Core Mediation” is a required course for all students. You may enroll in Core Mediation after completion of all first year required courses. Core Mediation is not part of the Clinical Course Application, so you may register for it on your own, in Populi.

If you have questions, please email Clinical Program Director Lety Perez (lperez@montereylaw.edu) and Dean Maren Christensen (mchristensen@montereylaw.edu).

Degree Requirement All Campuses	Please consider the following Guidelines when deciding what clinic classes to take: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• You Have Options: Your 2 additional units made be satisfied by taking clinics (listed below) and/or by completing an approved Internship.</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Core Mediation (2 units)</li> <li>• 2 additional clinical units</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Be Prepared: We strongly encourage you to take “Introduction to Community Legal Services” (ICLS) before enrolling in either a clinic or the Mediation Practicum. ICLS uses practice exercises to introduce and build the skills used in these clinics.</li> <li>• Mediation: We now have TWO mediation practicum courses: SLO Mediation Practicum (offered in fall and spring) and MCL Mediation Practicum. Both classes are open to students from all campuses and meet on zoom. SLOCL students will receive priority to take the SLO Mediation Practicum. You must complete Core Mediation before taking either mediation practicum class. In addition, as noted above, we strongly encourage you to take ICLS beforehand. The MCL Mediation Practicum involves more independent work, making it an advanced course. We recommend taking other clinics first before taking the MCL Mediation Practicum.</li> <li>• Internships: Completing an internship with a court, law firm, or agency is a great way to get legal training and build connections with your local legal community. Internships are also an opportunity to demonstrate your talents and skills as a future attorney. Successful interns sometimes even receive job offers! But a mediocre or unsuccessful internship could have the opposite effect. We strongly encourage you to complete other clinical courses within our school before applying for an internship. Internship Program Guidelines, Instructions, and Forms can be found in the “Forms &amp; Policies” section of the school website.</li> <li>• Make It Your Own: Whether you want to try everything, or build experience in a particular area, we encourage you to start planning your clinical education goals early. If you have questions or concerns, or want some advice, you can ask Dean Christensen (mchristensen@montereylaw.edu), Clinical Program Director Lety Perez (lperez@montereylaw.edu) or any of your professors. We’re here to help you make the most of your time as law students!</li> </ul>
